

Swine Influenza Outbreaks

Description:

Human cases of swine influenza have been confirmed in several countries by the World Health Organization. The Australian Government is working closely with state and territory governments and all relevant authorities to monitor the situation. This will ensure that Australia is able to respond effectively to the evolving situation.

Country: Online

City:

Website:

<http://www.healthemergency.gov.au/internet/healthemergency/publishing.nsf/Content/home-1>